Sanyang Keuneonggot Forest

Have fun in the fairytale-like village tucked inside the dense forest of Jeju. It features a 3km scenic forest trail paths enveloped in phytoncide for a healing experience. It is a lesser known beautifully restored forest park that is famous for its peaceful, enchanting atmosphere adorned with fairytale-like props.

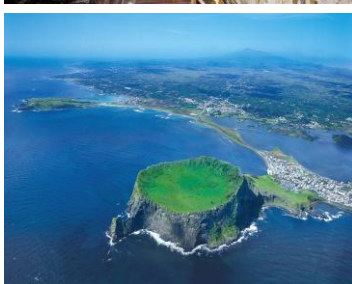

Udo Island

The volcanic island also called Cow Island because of a hill that looks like a cow lying down, is Jeju's largest offshore island. Besides its natural beauty, unique volcanic landscape, and peanut-based treats, it is also known for its eight scenic views and stunning beaches.

Manjanggul Cave

(UNESCO GLOBAL GEOPARK & UNESCO World site) formed over one hundred thousand years ago. It stretches 7,400m, with a 25m height and 18m width, making it one of the largest lava tubes in the world. The 7.6m tall stone pillar inside is recorded as the largest in the world.

Seongsan Ilchulbong Peak

180m above sea level, erupted underwater in the ocean about 5,000 years ago. Now an UNESCO-listed volcanic cone famous for stunning sunrise views. Hike 30-45 minutes to the summit for panoramic scenery of Udo Island, Hallasan, and the sea.

Lumiverse: Island of Light

Immerse yourself in dynamic audio-visual experiences, with magical night-time light park in Jeju Folk Village featuring seven themed zones, island legends, live "Lumibus" parades, and immersive multimedia storytelling.
