Hwacheon Ice Festival

Takes place in Gangwon-do with plenty of snow and ice. It was even introduced by CNN as one of the "Seven Winter Wonders" in 2011. The main event of the festival, ice fishing, takes place on the frozen Hwacheoncheon Stream. In addition to programs like ice fishing, ice sledding, and bobsled, visitors can get a taste of the freshly caught trout grilled on the spot.

Gyeongbokgung palace

Gyeongbokgung Palace is even more beautiful in winter when the palace is covered with snow.. The blue sky and the old palace in the white snow are so perfectly harmonized that you can't help wanting to photograph the scenery.

Alpensia Ski Resort

Alpensia Ski Resort has six slopes for skiers and snowboarders to enjoy. Runs as long as 1.4km provide a dynamic experience for both beginners and experienced skiers and snowboarders. There is also an area exclusively for advanced snowboarders to practice their skills.

Eobi Ice Valley

In the past, there were few people, so no one was fishing, and there was plenty of water. For this reason, it seemed that the fish kept bouncing out of the valley water. Eobi is a valley where fish keep flying, Eobi Valley is known for its magnificent frozen waterfall. The Ice wall created by a

Gwangmyeong Cave

There are many geological feature and thematic areas set up in the Cave. It offers visitors a unique opportunity to take part in wine-tasting, with 78 different varieties of quality wine across 8 different Korean vineyards.
