Gimpo Aegibong Peace Ecopark

The peak was named Aegibong Peak to express the mourning and sorrow of families who got separated from the Korean War. It offers a unique experience combining natural beauty with a glimpse into the Korean Demilitarized Zone (DMZ). The Observatory provides a close-up view of North Korea, including North Korean life and farmers working in the fields.

Maisan Provincial Park

Located in Jinan-gun, North Jeolla Province, Mt Maisan is a rocky mountain composed of two peaks: MS Malbong Peak (687.4m) and MR Malbong Peak (681.1m), as well as more than ten smaller peaks. It is famous for its cherry blossoms in spring, Cosmos flowers in summer & autumn, and purple Silvergrass and maple leaves in autumn.

Jeonju Hanok Village + Hanbok Wearing

With more than 800 traditional Korean houses, it's the only completely preserved Korean house community. Not only can you eat the most authentic bibimbap and also visit the Jeondong Cathedral and Gyeonggijeon Shrine. Explore the village in Hanbok and record the memories of your trip to Jeonju with photos.

Daegwallyeong Sheep Ranch

Nestled in the picturesque Pyeongchang Alps, at an altitude of 920 km, this vast grassland covers 205,000 square meters. Visitors can stroll and observe sheep grazing, or even experience feeding them. There are also many great spots for taking photos.

Suwon Hwaseong Fortress

Hwaseong Fortress was designated UNESCO World Cultural Heritage in 1997 due to its historical value. There are performances every day, and the Suwon Hwaseong Culture Festival is held every autumn. The city wall stretches for 5,700km. The castle was built from 1794 to 1796 by King Jeongjo to honour the remains of his father, Prince Sado.
