Kenting Eluanbi Lighthouse

This historic lighthouse, located at Eluanbi Cape, the southernmost point of Taiwan. Known as the "Light of East Asia" it has guided ships for centuries. This historic lighthouse is a beacon of light that has stood the test of time.

Taitung Bunun Tribe Experience

Taitung has the highest density of indigenous people in Taiwan. The Bunun people live in the mountainous areas of Yanping and Haiduan, and are known for their "Eight-Part Harmony" to report war achievements and their millet festival. Experience includes a DIY, tribal archery, enjoy Tribal cuisine and a tribal performance.

The Taitung Wave House is constructed from 50 shipping containers and steel bars, featuring a striking wave-shaped exterior. You may find indigenous handmade items shop, specialty restaurants and cafes. This place has become a new hub for indigenous culture in Taitung.

Hualien Sky Mirror ATV Experience

A complete ATV experience, from training to group departure, traversing various beaches, jungles, and streams, and finally arrives at the secret photo spot known as Taiwan's "Sky Mirror", allowing you to capture beautiful Sky Mirror photos. The entire activity lasts approximately 1.5 hours!

Longpan Park

A hidden gem along the Kenting coast, is a vast expanse of grassland bordering the boundless Pacific Ocean. Within the park are cliffs, sinkholes, limestone caves, and red soil formations. The expansive green landscape, uniquely shaped rock formations, and the Pacific Ocean create a breathtaking panorama where sea and sky merge seamlessly, inspiring awe at the power and charm of nature.
