Luxurious Delicacy – dung of the civet; Kopi Luwak

One of the best known coffee in Bali, is collected from the dung of the civet? Yes, you did not hear wrongly.

The civets (Paradoxurus – locals call it Luwak) eat only the juiciest coffee berries, that are considered the best for brewing. Passing through the civet's intestines, the beans are then defecated. Amazingly, these beans yield an aromatic coffee with much less bitterness, along with very unique flavour.

A rare and unusual delicacy, Kopi Luwak is widely noted as the most expensive coffee in the world.

Rest and relax – dinner by the beach with beautiful sea waves

BBQ Set Seafood Dinner on the beach of Jimbaran. Beautiful stretches of white sandy beach and clear seawater that is suitable for recreation and relaxation. This area is famous for its delicious BBQ seafood with Jimbaran's "secret sauce", typically grilled seafood. Daily quartet singers are ready to entertain optionally. It's dining on the sand by the beach with sky as the roof.
